To Whom It May Concern

Re: Notification of Abandonment - US Application Number 10/019,435

I recently received a second notice of abandonment, corrected from the first, see enclosed copies. The reason for the abandonment was failure to provide required information on time.

I am now writing you to ask you to withhold the Abandonment because the required information was timely submitted as evidenced by the information provided:

1. The full U.S. Basic National Fee (International Money Order # 773 1491 for a sum of $445.00 USD) was mailed 2001/10/30 from Canada Post Outlet in Sardis, B.C. via XPRESSPOST Item # 53 002 677 559. A copy of a Priority Courier Track and Trace System Archive Index Information from Canada Post shows last scan 2001/10/31 that letter arrived at the Foreign Office United States meaning US Mail. It is my understanding if the required information is in the US mail system then the date it arrives into the system is the date that the USPTO uses.
2. A notice from The International Bureau of WIPO - Informing the application of the International application to the Designated Offices show under 1 that the US was notified as of 11 October 2001. It also states that no copy of the International application is required to be furnished by the applicant to the designated offices.

I wait your response indicating that the evidence provided was sufficient in having you withhold the Abandonment. If you need any more information please contact me: home phone (604) 858-8519, e-mail glisters@shaw.ca, work phone (604) 824-5225, work fax 96040 824-5226.

Sincerely

Gary Lister
